ANSWER TO AMENDED
COMPLAINT AND AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSES

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Defendants, Rose Gindel Trust (the “Rose Gindel Trust”), Rose Gindel, Michael Gindel, Brent Gindel and Alvin Gindel, as Trustees of the Rose Gindel Trust (the “Rose Gindel Trustees”) and Michael Gindel, individually (collectively, the “Defendants”), by and through their undersigned counsel, submit this Answer and Affirmative Defenses to the Amended Complaint dated January 25, 2012 (the “Amended Complaint”) filed by Irving Picard (“Plaintiff” or “Trustee”) as Trustee of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities (“BLMIS”) in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (11 Civ. 07601) [Dkt. No. 8] as follows: To the extent any allegation is not specifically admitted, it is expressly denied. No response is required to the various headings or subheadings throughout the Amended Complaint. To the extent that responses are required to the various headings or subheadings, however, all are denied.

1. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in the second sentence, except expressly denies that this adversary arises from a Ponzi scheme, but admits that Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff”) pled guilty to certain crimes and respectfully refers the Court to a copy of the transcript of the United States District Court for Southern District of New York dated March 12, 2009 and other filings and pleadings in that case for the complete contents therein.

2. Paragraph 2 consists of characterizations and legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants expressly deny that they were beneficiaries of a Ponzi scheme, received other people’s money or avoidable transfers and that any payments they received are fictitious profits or recoverable by the Trustee. Pursuant to the Order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, described below, the claims against the Subsequent Transferee Defendant have been dismissed.

3. Defendants admit that Plaintiff purports to have brought this action under 15 U.S.C. §§ 78 fff(b), 78 fff-1(a), 78 fff-2(c) and 78 fff-2(c)(3), section 105(a), 544, 548(a), 550 and 551 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act New York Debtor and Creditor Law § 270 et seq. (McKinney 2001) (“DCL”), and other applicable law, but deny that Plaintiff is entitled to any relief against the Defendants pursuant to the cited provisions or otherwise. Defendants further deny that Defendants incurred fraudulent obligations or received fraudulent conveyances in connection with certain transfers by BLMIS and that Plaintiff is entitled to set aside, avoid or recover any transfers from BLMIS. Defendants respectfully refer the Court to the Order of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York dated May 22, 2012 (Case No 12 MC 01115(JSR)) dismissing the Trustee’s claims that seek avoidance of (1) preferences under section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) constructive fraudulent transfers under section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and (c) actual and constructive fraudulent conveyances under provisions of New York Debtor & Creditor Law incorporated by section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. On June 22, 2015, the Supreme Court of the United States denied certiorari of the Trustee’s appeal of SIPC v. Ida Fishman Revocable Trust, 14-1128 and Picard v. Ida Fishman Revocable Trust, 14-1129, and thus section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code applies to this proceeding. In addition, pursuant to the Order of the Bankruptcy Court dated July 16, 2015, the Trustee’s claims to avoid obligations and against Subsequent Transferee Defendant, as defined in the Amended Complaint, have been dismissed.

4. Defendants admit that Plaintiff commenced this adversary proceeding “in the same Court before which the main SIPA proceeding, No. 08-01789 (BRL) is pending”, but deny that the Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 1334, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78 eeee(b)(2)(A). The remaining allegations of Paragraph 4 consist of legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants respectfully refer this Court to the docket of proceedings in the United States District Court for an accurate account of the reference of this adversary proceeding.

5. Paragraph 5 of the Amended Complaint consists of conclusions of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer is required, Defendants deny the allegation contained in Paragraph 5, does not consent to the entry of a final judgment by the Bankruptcy Court, and respectfully refers all questions of law to the appropriate court. Defendants demand a jury trial.

6. Paragraph 6 of the Amended Complaint consists of conclusions of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer is required, Defendants deny the allegation contained in Paragraph 6 and respectfully refers all questions of law to the appropriate court.

7. Defendant, Rose Gindel Trust, admits that it is a trust but denies that it is a trust formed Florida law and admits that it held an account with BLMIS.

8. Paragraph 8 of the Amended Complaint refers to a party that has been dismissed.

9. Michael Gindel admits that he was the beneficial owner of an account with BLMIS with an account address in Sag Harbor. Michael Gindel denies that he maintains his residence in Sag Harbor. Michael Gindel denies he is a trustee of the Rose Gindel Trust.

10. Defendant Brent Gindel, named solely as a trustee of the Rose Gindel Trust, maintains his residence in Utah. Brent Gindel denies he is a trustee of the Rose Gindel Trust.

11. Defendant Alvin Gindel, named solely as trustee of the Rose Gindel Trust, maintains his residence in the State of Florida.

12. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 12 of the Amended Complaint, except admit that on information and belief, Madoff was arrested on December 11, 2008, and refer the Court to the filings and pleadings in the various referenced actions relating to Madoff and BLMIS for the complete contents therein. The footnote to Paragraph 12 consists of a legal conclusion to which no response is required.

13. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 13 of the Amended Complaint, and refer the Court to the referenced order for the complete contents therein.

14. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 14 of the Amended Complaint, and refer the Court to the filings and pleadings in the various actions relating to Madoff and BLMIS for the complete contents therein.

15. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 15 of the Amended Complaint, and refer the Court to the referenced order for the complete contents therein.

16. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 16 of the Amended Complaint, and refer the Court to the referenced orders for the complete contents therein.

17. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 17 of the Amended Complaint, and refer the Court to the Plea Allocution for the complete contents therein.

18. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 18 of the Amended Complaint, and refer the Court to the referenced Plea Allocution for the complete contents therein.

19. Paragraph 19 of the Amended Complaint consists of a series of legal conclusions and/or arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 19 of the Amended Complaint.

20. Paragraph 20 of the Amended Complaint consists of legal conclusions and/or arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 17 of the Amended Complaint.

21. Paragraph 21 of the Amended Complaint consists of legal conclusions and/or arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 21 of the Amended Complaint, but deny the Trustee has standing to bring these claims.

22. Paragraph 22 of the Amended Complaint consists of legal conclusions and/or arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 22 and each sub part in Paragraph 22 of the Amended Complaint. Given the rulings described above, Defendants expressly deny that the Trustee has the power to avoid and recover transfers under section 544, 547, 548(a)(1)(B) and applicable state law.

23. Defendants admit that BLMIS was a broker-dealer registered with the Securities & Exchange Commission and a member of SIPC but Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations set forth in Paragraph 23 of the Amended Complaint.

24. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 24 of the Amended Complaint.

25. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 25 of the Amended Complaint.

26. Defendants, Rose Gindel Trust and Michael Gindel, admit that they received monthly statements but Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations set forth in Paragraph 26 of the Amended Complaint.

To the extent that Plaintiff relies on the Madoff's Plea Allocution, Defendants respectfully refer the Court to the Plea Allocution for the complete contents therein.

27. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 27 of the Amended Complaint.

28. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 28 of the Amended Complaint.

29. Paragraph 29 of the Amended Complaint consists of certain legal conclusions and/or arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations and all remaining allegations set forth in Paragraph 29 of the Amended Complaint.

30. Paragraph 30 of the Amended Complaint consists of certain legal conclusions and/or arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny that any monies sent to BLMIS was used to enrich the Defendants and deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of remaining allegations set forth in Paragraph 30 of the Amended Complaint.

31. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations and all remaining allegations set forth in Paragraph 31 of the Amended Complaint.

32. Defendants, Rose Gindel Trust and Michael Gindel, admit they received monthly statements, but Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations set forth in Paragraph 32 of the Amended Complaint.

33. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 33 of the Amended Complaint.

34. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 34 of the Amended Complaint.

35. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 35 of the Amended Complaint and refers the Court to the referenced Uniform Application for Investment Advisor Registration for the complete contents therein.

36. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 36 of the Amended Complaint.

37. Paragraph 37 of the Amended Complaint consists of certain legal conclusions and/or arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in Paragraph 37 of the Amended Complaint.

38. Defendants, Rose Gindel Trust and Michael Gindel, admit that each maintained an account at BLMIS and executed certain documents for the purpose of authorizing trades on their behalf and received periodic customer statements, confirmations and other communications from BLMIS reflecting transactions in each account. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations set forth in Paragraph 38 of the Amended Complaint.

39. Defendants, Rose Gindel Trust and Michael Gindel, admit that they made deposits into their accounts at BLMIS. Defendants deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations set forth in Paragraph 39 of the Amended Complaint.

40. Paragraph 40 of the Amended Complaint relates to the claim that has been dismissed.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendants assert the following affirmative defenses and reserves the right to amend this Answer to assert other and further defenses when and if, in the course of their investigation, discovery, or preparation for trial it becomes appropriate. By designating these matters as "defenses," Defendants do not relieve the Trustee of proving under the appropriate standard of proof all elements of any claim alleged. Defendants do not undertake any burdens that properly rest upon the Trustee, and do not suggest either that the Trustee does not bear the burden of proof as to such matters or that such matters are not elements that he must establish in order to make out a prima facie case against Defendants.

Under prior decisions applicable to this adversary proceeding, all of the claims alleged in the Amended Complaint are barred but for those claims asserted under sections 548(a)(1)(A) and 550(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Consent Order Granting Certification Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) for Entry of Final Judgment Dismissing Certain Claims and Actions. See Securities

Inv. Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Secs. LLC (In re Madoff Secs.), No. 12-MC-0115 (JSR) (S.D.N.Y. April 27, 2012) (Docket No. 101) as affirmed by the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

In the event that subsequent legal developments further alter the claims available to the Trustee, Defendants hereby raise each and every defense at law, in equity, or otherwise, available under any and all federal and state statutes, laws, rules, regulations or other creations, including common law. Defendants further adopt and incorporate by reference any and all other defenses asserted or to be asserted by any other defendant or party-in-interest to the extent that Defendants is similarly situated and may properly assert such defense.

Defendants reserve and assert all affirmative defenses available under applicable federal or state law, including Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, New York Debtor and Creditor Law, New York Civil Practice and Local Rules, and reserve the right to assert other defenses, cross-claims, and third party claims when and if they become appropriate in this action. Defendants further reserve all rights to amend or modify their Answer accordingly. Defendants further reserve the right to withdraw defenses that they determine are not applicable during the course of discovery and other proceedings in this case.

These defenses are set forth cumulatively and in the alternative.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Amended Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Amended Complaint violates Rules 8(a)(2) and 9(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 129 S. Ct. 1937 (2009), and Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007) by, inter alia, (a) failing to describe each specific transfer and its recipient, (b) pleading numerous background allegations and purported legal standards that are not required for the assertion of the alleged claims, (c) pleading numerous factual allegations about which Defendants could not possibly have knowledge, (d) failing to allege facts sufficient to demonstrate that any transfers allegedly made to any Defendants were made with actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors or customers of BLMIS; and (e) failing to allege any facts against the Rose Gindel Trust trustees and Subsequent Transferees.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

This Court lacks jurisdiction over the final adjudication of the claims asserted in the Amended Complaint under Stern v. Marshall, 131 S. Ct. 2594 (2011), and its progeny. The asserted claims are not core proceedings and Defendants does not consent to the entry of a final order and judgment by the Bankruptcy Court. Defendants further demand a trial by jury.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Trustee lacks standing, in whole or in part, to bring the claims asserted.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The claims are not ripe because they do not meet the conditions of section 78fff-2(c)(3) of SIPA. The Trustee has not established that there is a shortfall in customer property.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The transfers are not avoidable and/or recoverable because the funds at issue were held in trust by BLMIS and were not property of the estate in which BLMIS had a legal interest.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The claims are barred in whole or part by waiver, equitable estoppel and/or laches.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred against the trustees of Rose Gindel Trustees are barred because (a) Michael Gindel and Brent Gindel are not trustees of the Rose Gindel Trust; (b) the trustees of the Rose Gindel Trust did not receive any transfers as trustees; and (c) the trustees of Rose Gindel Trust, to the extent they ever received any funds from BLMIS, were mere conduits.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The claims are barred in whole or part by applicable limitations periods.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The claims are barred in whole or part by res judicata, collateral estoppel, and/or issue preclusion.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The alleged transfers, to the extent they were actually received by any Defendant, were taken for value and in good faith, as provided by section 548(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. They are thus not avoidable or recoverable as against any Defendant under sections 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Each claim for recovery of a fraudulent transfer is subject to recoupment or equitable adjustment because each account holder Defendant received such transfer in good faith, without knowledge of the alleged fraud, and in payment of an antecedent debt, in whole or in part, on account of obligations owed by BLMIS for, inter alia, (a) amounts contractually due to customers under New York law for the balances shown on prior customer account statements and related documents; (b) rescission remedies, including damages and interest for fraud and misrepresentation pursuant to federal and state law; (c) the time value of money; (d) unjust enrichment; (e) damages for breach of fiduciary duty; and/or (f) money had and received.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Each of the counts alleging a fraudulent transfer is subject to recoupment or other equitable adjustment to the extent that such transfers were, in whole or in part, used to pay tax obligations imposed on so-called “fictitious profits” reported on, among other things, IRS Form 1099 and other information reported by BLMIS to the Internal Revenue Service, state and/or local governmental taxing authorities.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of in pari delicto, unclean hands or other related equitable defenses.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The claims are barred in whole or part for failure to properly account for the time value of money through an interest adjustment to principal deposits.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Amended Complaint fails to state a claim on which relief can be granted because it fails to sufficiently trace the funds at issue from BLMIS to any Defendant.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because, to the extent that Plaintiff incurred any injury or damage as alleged in the Amended Complaint, which is denied, any such injury or damage was caused and brought about by the act, conduct or omissions of individuals and/or entities other than Defendants and, therefore, any recovery herein should be precluded or diminished in proportion to the amount of fault attributable to such other individuals and/or entities.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred because he cannot substantiate or validate his calculation of Net Equity or substantiate any of the transactions in the accounts prior to 1998 with reliable third party documents.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims under section 548(a)(1)(A) are barred because Defendants are the parties that BLMIS sought to hinder, delay and defraud.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Recovery of attorneys' fees from any Defendant is not permissible under sections 544 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code because such fees are not a "transfer" or "conveyance" under applicable law.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Even if the Trustee would be entitled to the return of some or all of the transfers, he would not be entitled to interest from the date of each alleged transfer.

WHEREFORE, Defendants demand judgment (a) dismissing each of the claims asserted in the Amended Complaint; (b) awarding the costs and disbursements of this proceeding, including reasonable attorneys' fees; and (c) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.
